FROM THE PRINCIPAL . . .

God sends us to Love Others

“What the world needs now is love, sweet love
It's the only thing that there's just too little of
What the world needs now is love, sweet love
No not just for some, but for everyone”

These lyrics were written in song by Hal Davis in 1965. The sentiments were true then and remain true today. We live in a world filled with anger, fear, and persecution – of all varieties. We unfortunately see it played out in our neighborhoods and across our city. We hear of issues across our nation. We witness it in world news like Ukraine.

Since we recognize that love is needed, why has it not been achieved? Too often, we are looking for the answers in the wrong places.

The only way that love enters, exists, and impacts the world is through the love of Jesus Christ. “Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whomever loves has been born of God and knows God.” (1 John 4:7) That love is freely given to us through the sacrifice on Good Friday. It is in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ that the burden of sin – which hampers all love – was removed for each one of us.

Our calling is to love others. To sacrificially give of ourselves for the benefit of those around us. That was not a natural thought in the past – nor is it today. We are all too often focused on our own needs and how to advance our own lives rather than thinking about how we might lift up, encourage, and support those in need around us. As we hear the Calling from our Savior – especially as Easter people who have experienced the immense love of our Heavenly Father – may we be bold enough to show that sweet love to everyone in this world (Isaiah 6:8).

Greetings,

Holy Week is such a special time of the year! I pray that you find some time to reflect on the events of Good Friday when Jesus suffered such pain and torture as he died on the cross for us. We know the story continues on during Easter Sunday when he rises from the dead conquering sin, death, and Satan. I hope you can celebrate that glorious fact on Sunday!

We have officially begun our last 6 week period of the school year. Before you know it, Final Exam week will be here. I encourage parents to check on their student's grades on Skyward and reach out to teachers with any questions.

The following students were selected as our March Students of the Month:

- | | |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Ayo Adeniyi (Social Studies) | Brianna Patton (Tech Ed) |
| Aniya Bonner (Academic Advising) | Steven Ross (Religion) |
| Paris Clayton (Art) | Steven Schlie (Academic Advising) |
| Zanyiah Davis (Business) | Taylor Shaffer-Thornton (Music) |
| LaShay Hunt (Science) | MacKenzy Thomas (Spanish) |
| De'Aliyah Kemp (Resource) | Le'Ajah Weddle (P.E.) |
| Julia Khoelisho (Math) | Skye Williams |
| Schekina Kouakou (English) | |

Teachers had these comments about the March Students of the Month: hard-worker, delightful, has done a great job of making up work, positive leader, always on task, a blessing to have in class, etc.

Below are some reminders of school policies. If you have any questions about policies/procedures, please contact me at 414-461-6000X205 or jkalkopf@milwaukeeelutheran.org

BEFORE SCHOOL

-Please have your student arrive at school by 7:50 to give them plenty of time to get to their first class.

ATTENDANCE

-If your student is absent, please contact the attendance office at 461-6062.

-We expect all students to be on time to all of their classes. If a student accumulates more than 5 late marks in a week, they will receive consequences.

DRESS CODE

-Our 2 biggest issues deal with jeans and hooded sweatshirts. We do not allow jeans that have frays, tears or rips in them. We do not allow hoods to be worn up.

PHONES/EAR BUDS

-Phones/ear buds should not be out during the school day. If a staff member sees it without permission, the student must hand the phone over and the student will get it back at the end of the day. If you need to get ahold of your student, please call the attendance office at 461-6062.

DELIVERIES

-Door Dash and other delivery services are not allowed.

AFTER SCHOOL

-The school day ends at 3:20. Please have your student picked up near this time.

The verse of encouragement I would like to leave with you is from Luke 24:5-6 "The women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen!". Have a great Easter weekend!

God's Blessings,
